The Sunday Ball Games

Lihue

The Koloas defeated the Kawaihau Sunday in one of the most exciting games of the season, with a score of 8 to 3. There was but little to criticize in the playing of both teams, the game from start to finish being entirely free from unpleasantness. The Koloa Team has been strengthened recently by the addition of Myre and Kahlban, both of whom play the game well and have given the Koloa Greens encouragement to do or die. Myre was in the box, and while he twirled a swift ball, too many, it was thought, were allowed to walk. Rose, pitcher for the K. A. C.'s was a wonder, walking but one man, and allowing the smallest number of hits recorded on the Lihue diamond this season. The Kawaihau's battery needs strengthening. Otherwise they played a class of ball which if continued will be the means of placing some of the leading teams on the retiring list. Much rooting from both parties was in evidence, some forgetting to such an extent as to grow too personal. There is no call for such conduct and it must not occur again. Puoe umpired at the bat while C. Hopper did duty at the bases, not a decision from either being questioned. The Kawaihau are certainly a lot of true blue sports, proof of which lies in the expression of their manager yesterday when he remarked that, "win or lose, we're here to stay. Of course we would like to win a game, but if we do not, why, we'll stay in simply for pure sport's sake." And they'll win out, too. Any bunch of men united in an effort to support CLEAN SPORT, will certainly have their inning, sooner or later.

At the conclusion of Sunday's game, the Lihue team pulled off a stunt with a pick-up gang, who went too strong for the league team. It was an exciting contest, the pick-ups having the best of the experts from start to finish. Great hilarity prevailed when at the end, the score stood 9 to 8 in favor of the "scrubs."

Makaweli

Being somewhat irritated at the strange fact of losing a game to the Koloas the previous Sunday, the Kilaueas Sunday, gave the Makawelis, a score of 15 to 8, a taste of what they could do when aroused. They clawed and hammered and mauled the Makawelis. They outclassed the Makawelis as a cat outclasses a canary in a hand and mix-up. Every mother's son of them made a fine showing. It was conceded by the large number of fans, that the visiting team had all the luck. Nevertheless, they used their stick to good effect on the famous south paw swings of the home team swatter and they also fielded prettily. Pitchers of both teams were rapped with considerable asperity, but the Kilauea pitcher pitched the most effective game considering the frequency with which he was slatted. He performed with steadiness, clipping the corners accurately and at every stage of the game, had the Makaweli battery guessing, even though they did hit him freely, for with all their free hitting, there were few consecutive strikes. The home team had a struggle in the first inning managing to ring up two scores. At this juncture, the Bull Dogs struck the scent which they closely guard-led up to the very last moment when a score of 15 to 8 marked the victory for the Kilaueas. To lack of team work must be accredited the loss of the game by the home team. The members did good, individual work, but could not bunch their efforts.

Homestead

After eight and half innings in some of which there was considerable dismal baseball, the Elees came over the line with the tremendous score of 26 to 4 against the Homestead farmers. Elele piled up a winning score from the very start and a 11 t h e Homesteaders could do was to make an uphill fight which does not fatten percentages. It was simply a wall over with the Elees and the least said about games with such score—especially since those concerned have defeated some of the best teams—the better. Until further particulars are learned, there can be but one reason for this overwhelming defeat—lack of practice.
